The Texas Food Processors Association (TFPA) is a 501(c) 6 non-profit trade association representing companies engaged in the processing of food products and includes companies that provide them with ingredients, equipment, materials, services and industry affiliates.

Benefits

- Internships: TFPA scholarship recipients make great candidates for internships for your business.
- Scholarships: TFPA takes great pride in our ability to raise funds for scholarships for both Texas A&M and Texas Tech Food Science Students.
- Support: TFPA provides an industry voice with Government Agencies.
- Regulatory Insights: TFPA members receive updates on federal and state rules and regulations at our annual meetings.
- Networking Resources: TFPA annual meetings provide excellent opportunities to gain insights and connections to use in your business.
- Industry Experts: TFPA membership provides access to experts in the industry from Texas A&M.
- Annual Meetings: TFPA annual meetings provide an opportunity to get updates on a variety of topics in a concise manner.
- Market Updates: TFPA annual meeting speaker subjects have included transportation, labeling, packaging, regulatory issues, workers comp, food trends, and social media and technology in the workplace.
